Procedures for Determining Candidate Ballot Positions

Primary Election

1. Preprimary Convention Candidates: Candidates designated and certified by state convention for a statewide office or federal office shall be placed on the Primary Election ballot in the order of the vote received at the state convention. The candidate receiving the highest vote shall be placed first in order on the ballot, followed by the candidate receiving the next highest vote, and so on until all the candidates designated for that office have been placed on the ballot, provided that the names of two or more candidates receiving an equal number of votes for designation by convention for the same office shall be placed on the Primary ballot in the order determined by lot. Names of candidates for statewide office or federal office who do not receive preprimary convention designation but who are qualified candidates by declaration of candidacy shall be placed on the ballot as determined by lot following convention designated candidates. (1-8-43 (A) NMSA 1978)

2. “Declaration of Candidacy” Candidates: The names of candidates who are candidates by declaration of candidacy shall be arranged on the ballot as determined by lot. The determination by lot shall be made immediately following the closing time for filing declarations of candidacy, and all candidates or their agents shall be entitled to be present at such time. If a candidate cannot be present at the time the drawing for office takes place, the candidate can designate another to draw for him. If no one appears for the candidate, the proper filing officer will draw for the candidate’s ballot position. (1-8-43(B) & 1-8-43 (C) NMSA 1978)

General Election

1. Drawing for Party Position: For the General Election, a drawing for party position by political parties takes place in the Office of the Secretary of State on the first Wednesday in September (September 5, 2012) (1-10-8.1 NMSA 1978, & 1.10.6.8 NMAC). The major political parties draw first, followed by minor parties for the subsequent positions.

2. Independent Candidates: Unaffiliated or independent candidates follow political party candidates. In the event two or more independent candidates run for the same office, their names shall be located on the ballot in alphabetical order. (1.10.6.8G NMAC)

Requirements and Instructions:

NOMINATING PETITIONS

IMPORTANT NOTICE

As of October 1, 2011, the date of publication of this Candidate Guide, redistricting plans for congressional districts, legislative offices, and public regulation commission have not been completed, and redistricting is in litigation. UNTIL DISTRICTS ARE DETERMINED, PETITIONS FILLED OUT AND SIGNED PRIOR TO THE DETERMINATION OF FINAL DISTRICTS MAY NOT BE VALID AND MAY BE SUBJECT TO CHALLENGE.

Which candidates are required to file nominating petitions: Candidates for statewide office, U.S. Senator, U.S. Representative, legislative office, district judge, district attorney, state board of education, public regulation commission and magistrate judges must file nominating petitions. County candidates are not required to file nominating petitions for primary elections; however, independent candidates for county offices in the general election must file nominating petitions.

Where to obtain authorized nominating petition: Nominating petition forms are available at the Secretary of State's office in Santa Fe and in the Office of the County Clerk in each county. Persons must use a nominating petition form prescribed by the Secretary of State or use an exact reproduction of the form authorized for use by the Secretary of State. Petitions are also available online at <http://www.sos.state.nm.us>. (Section 1-2-1(B) NMSA 1978, 1-8-30(E) NMSA 1978)

When nominating petitions can be circulated: Nominating petitions may be circulated for signatures beginning October 1, 2011. (1-8-30(D) NMSA 1978) Nominating petitions for independent candidates may be circulated for signatures beginning March 1, 2012. (1-8-50(E) NMSA 1978)

Filling in the information at the top of each petition page: For clarity and accuracy, the general information and candidate information contained in the top one-third of the petition page should be completed in printed form or in black ballpoint pen.

Misdemeanor offense for knowingly circulating petition without proper information filled in at the top:

All general information and candidate information required in the top one-third of the page must be completely filled in prior to circulating. The following information shall be listed in the appropriate space at the top of the nominating petition before the petition has been signed by any voter: the party affiliation of voters signing the petition, the candidate's name, the candidate's address, the candidate's county of residence and the office sought by the candidate, which shall include the district or division of the office sought, if applicable. Signatures on a page will not be counted by the filing office at the time the petition is filed if all general information and candidate information in the top one-third of each page has not been completely filled in prior to circulation.

Any person knowingly circulating a nominating petition page that does not clearly show the name of the candidate, the address at which the candidate resides, the candidate's county of residence, and the office for which the candidate seeks nomination is guilty of a misdemeanor under Section 1-8-32(B) NMSA 1978.

Felony offense for knowingly altering the general or candidate information at the top of the petition page: The general information and candidate information contained in the top one-third of the petition page cannot be altered, modified or otherwise changed after the petition page has started circulating. Any person knowingly altering any of the general information or candidate information contained in the top one-third of the petition page may be guilty of falsifying information on a nominating petition under Sections 1-8-32(A) and 1-20-9(F) NMSA 1978. Knowingly falsifying any information on a nominating petition is a fourth degree felony.

In order to avoid creating an issue as to whether a particular petition page was improperly altered, it is recommended that persons filing a petition avoid the use of white-out, over-typing, strikeovers or visible erasure when filling out the top one-third of the petition page.

Only original petition pages shall be filed; reproduced copies will not be accepted or counted: At the time of filing the petition, the completed original of each petition page must be submitted to the filing officer. Reproduced copies of petition pages containing copies of the signatures and other information required of the registered voter are not permitted, and none of the signatures on that page shall be counted by the filing officer at the time the petition is filed.

No additions or withdrawals of petition pages and signatures will be accepted after filing: All petitions shall be submitted to the filing officer at one time. The filing officer shall not accept any additional pages after the candidate has first submitted the petition to the filing officer. The filing officer shall retain all pages submitted whether the petition or signatures on the petition are counted or not. (1-8-34(A) NMSA 1978)

IMPORTANT

GROUND FOR WHICH PETITION AND SIGNATURES MAY BE REJECTED

Litigation may be filed to require rejection (1-8-35 NMSA 1978) of filed nominating petitions and signatures on various grounds, including but not limited to, proof that:

- the voter signing was not of the same political party as the candidate named in the nominating petition ten days prior to the filing of the nominating petition; (1-8-31(C)(1) NMSA 1978)
- the voter signing failed to provide information required by the nominating petition (1-8-31(C)(2) NMSA 1978)
- a signature is not that of a registered voter; (1-8-31(C) NMSA 1978)
- a signature is not that of a voter in the area to be represented by the office for which the person filing the nominating petition seeks to be a candidate; (1-8-31(C)(3) NMSA 1978) ; and

- the person signing the petition has signed more than one petition for the same office where only one candidate is to be elected for such office (if more than one candidate is to be elected to an office, the voter may sign only the number of nominating petitions equal to the number of candidates to be elected to that office (1-8-31(A)(C)(4) NMSA 1978) and;

Section 1-8-31 NMSA 1978, to avoid risking disqualification through failure to file a sufficient number of qualifying signatures, the candidate should act carefully to obtain only qualified signatures.

The original nominating petition must be filed with the filing officer and shall remain in the filing officer's office. (1-8-34(B) NMSA 1978)

It is recommended that the candidate obtain additional signatures. As a precaution, the candidate may find it appropriate to obtain more signatures than are required by law, in the event one or more of the signatures are rejected by the filing officer or are subsequently rejected by the courts.

REQUIRED NUMBER OF SIGNATURES

Compilation of Statutory Provisions - Major Party Provisions:

Basis for calculation of signature requirements: "Total vote" means the sum of all votes cast for all of the party's candidates for Governor at the last preceding Primary Election at which the party's candidate for Governor was nominated. (1-8-33(A) NMSA 1978)

Signature requirements for offices subject to preprimary convention designation: Candidates who seek preprimary convention designation shall file a nominating petition at the time of filing a declaration of candidacy. The nominating petition for those candidates shall be signed by a number of voters equal to the greater of; (1) at least two percent (2%) of the total vote of the candidate's party in the state or congressional district, or for statewide offices, two hundred thirty voters (230); (2) for congressional candidates, seventy-seven (77) voters. (1-8-33(B) NMSA 1978)

Collecting additional signatures only if candidate fails to achieve ballot status at preprimary convention: A candidate who fails to receive the preprimary convention designation that the candidate sought may collect additional signatures to total at least four percent (4%) of the total vote of the candidate's party in the state or congressional district, whichever applies to the office the candidate seeks, and file a new declaration of candidacy and nominating petitions for the office for which the candidate failed to receive a preprimary designation. The declaration of candidacy and nominating petitions shall be filed with the secretary of state either ten (10) days following the date of the preprimary convention at which the candidate failed to receive the designation or on the date all declarations of candidacy and additional nominating petitions are due pursuant to the provisions of the Primary Election Law, whichever is later. (1-8-33 NMSA 1978)

CAMPAIGN REPORTING ACT

Section 1-19-1 through 1-19-37 NMSA 1978

The Regulation and Disclosure of Campaign Contributions and Expenditures

Overview:

The Campaign Reporting Act mandates public disclosure of contributions and expenditures made for a political purpose by public officials and candidates seeking or considering election to offices on a Primary, General or Statewide Special Election ballot. It also provides for registration and disclosure by political committees that contribute or expend funds for a political purpose. Disclosure is accomplished by filing reports of contributions and expenditures in election and non-election years. The Act specifies permissible expenditures from candidates' campaign accounts, prohibits certain fundraising activities by incumbents in or candidates for a regulatory office limits the amount of anonymous and special event contributions that may be retained, and prohibits the solicitation of campaign contributions by legislators or legislative candidates and the Governor (or their agents) before, during, and after a legislative session.

Furthermore, it establishes a filing schedule for all reports and prescribes monetary penalties for failure to file timely, complete or accurate reports or statements of no activity and provides for civil and criminal enforcement. Additionally, it prohibits the placement of a candidate's name on an election ballot, or the issuance of a certificate of nomination or election, for failure to comply with the reporting requirements or failure to pay any monetary penalty imposed.

DEFINITIONS

As used in the Campaign Reporting Act (1-19-25 to 1-19-36, NMSA 1978)

Definition of a candidate:

"Candidate" means an individual who seeks or considers an office in an election covered by the Campaign Reporting Act, including a public official, who either has filed a declaration of candidacy or nominating petition or:

Definition of a contribution:

"contribution" means a gift, subscription, loan, advance or deposit of money or other thing of value, including the estimated value of an in-kind contribution, that is made or received for a political purpose, including payment of a debt incurred in an election campaign, but "contribution" does not include the value of services provided without compensation or unreimbursed travel or other personal expenses of individuals who volunteer a portion or all of their time on behalf of a candidate or political committee, nor does it include the administrative or solicitation expenses of a political committee that are paid by an organization that sponsors the committee.

Definition of expenditure:

"expenditure" means a payment, transfer or distribution or obligation or promise to pay, transfer or distribute any money or other thing of value for a political purpose, including payment of a debt incurred in an election campaign or pre-primary convention, but does not include the administrative or solicitation expenses of a political committee that are paid by an organization that sponsors the committee.
